List High School and Community Honors and Activities

I am a member of the National Honor Society and participating in Sterling Scholar. I have also been a contributing member for four different sports throughout my high school year; baseball, basketball, football, and golf. I have also spent many hours providing service to community programs including officiating little league baseball and youth basketball.

Essay

Writing has always been a favorite pastime of mine. Being able to type or write my ideas, or what I see, onto a piece of paper in my own words and descriptions has always brought a ray of light to my mind. Throughout high school, sports have always been a major part of my life. I played four sports over four years: baseball, basketball, football, and golf. As a result, sports have been the main focus of my writing.

About halfway through my junior year, I was given the amazing opportunity to cover high school sports for my local paper. In total, I covered four different teams across two sports seasons: baseball, softball, boys golf, and girls golf. This opportunity gave me the chance to showcase my writing skills while sharing the achievements of my peers with the community. As I prepare to enter college in a few months, I will continue growing as a writer and pursue a successful career in journalism by attending Utah State University.

Receiving the Empire State Electric Scholarship would mean far more to me than just financial assistance. It would be a powerful vote of confidence in my dedication, work ethic, and future goals. I deeply respect organizations like Empire State Electric that invest in students like me who are striving to build meaningful careers and give back to their communities. Your commitment to supporting students shows that you value hard work, perseverance, and ambition. These are some qualities I have worked to demonstrate both in the classroom and through my involvement in athletics and journalism. This scholarship would not only help ease the financial burden of college, but it would also motivate me to represent Empire State Electric with pride as I pursue excellence at Utah State University and beyond.

The Land Above the Canyons

2.11.2026

To Whom It May Concern,

I am honored to write this letter in support of Jackson Keyes as a candidate for Sterling Scholar recognition. I have had the privilege of working with Jackson for several years at the golf course and occasionally the City Parks, where he has consistently demonstrated a strong work ethic, positive attitude, and genuine respect for those around him.

During his time with us, Jackson has proven to be dependable, responsible, and willing to take initiative in every task he is given. He approaches his work with enthusiasm and brings an upbeat energy that positively impacts both coworkers and those around him. His natural sense of humor and ability to make others feel welcome create an enjoyable and supportive work environment, while never taking away from his commitment to doing the job well.

In addition to his work at the golf course, Jackson is always willing to serve the community by refereeing and umpiring Little League recreational programs for the city. In these programs, he demonstrates fairness and patience. He handles conflict with ease and is always willing to educate the youth to better their abilities.

Jackson is a young man of strong character, kindness, and integrity. He always has a positive take on tasks and is always making you laugh. I am confident that he will continue to succeed in his academic pursuits and future endeavors while making meaningful contributions to his community. He is truly deserving to be considered a Sterling Scholar.

Please feel free to contact me if additional information is needed.

Sincerely,

Megan Gallegos
Assistant City Manager
Parks & Recreation Director

To Sterling Scholar Scholarship Committee,

It is without any hesitation and a great privilege to be able to recommend Jackson Keyes for your scholarship. I got to know Jackson as his business teacher and baseball coach at Monticello High School. From the first day of class and practice, Jackson impressed me greatly with his upbeat attitude, consistent work ethic, focus and determination. He never hesitated to ask for help with how to improve his skills on the field or in the classroom demonstrating to me that he is someone who always strives to be better, which is a rare quality among students today. Jackson has always showed me he has a great passion for education and when you combine that with an amazing work ethic you have a fantastic student.

Jackson plans to go to Utah State University and study journalism as well as hopefully being a member of the baseball team. That is a tough task but one Jackson is definitely up for. I have been impressed with how well Jackson handles busy high stress situations his whole high school career. Jackson has held a job at the golf course and with the city while maintaining good grades and playing four sports. Most of my students have to choose school and either work or sports to be successful. It is very rare to have a kid work multiple jobs, get good grades, and succeed in sports. Jackson has accomplished just that. When he sets his mind to something consider it done with full commitment. There is no doubt in my mind that Jackson will succeed in whatever path he chooses to take. He was one of my most motivated students who never succumbed to the pressure of school, work, and external commitments.

In the time I taught and coached Jackson he possessed two skill sets that youth struggle to learn as middle and high school students and athletes. Jackson demonstrated a voracious desire to continually learn and achieve to the best of his abilities. He is a student of anything he undertakes he is methodical, studies, questions, and formulates decisions based upon this process. This coupled with the fact that those around him follow and become better themselves demonstrates unique leadership qualities that will get him very far in life.

I do not take recommendations lightly, so when Jackson asked me to write this letter, I had some advice and questions for him. I know he desires to become a journalist. That is a job that not just any average individual can do. It is a lot of hard work and dedication to get there. I reflected back to my time with Jackson, and he is absolutely not just an average individual. He possesses some of the best qualities of commitment and determination I have ever seen in a student. During my time talking with Jackson about his future and his everyday work ethic, he demonstrated to me a desire to commit to any task he takes on. I feel confident that the leadership qualities he contains is a working capital to use with any schooling and route he takes on. His hard work and effort will get him very far in life and there is no doubt in my mind that he will succeed. He is very deserving of this scholarship and will greatly contribute to any community that he is a part of.

Please feel free to contact me if you have any questions. Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,

Baylr Eldredge
