Essay

Choosing a career is one of the most important decisions a person will make. Choosing to peruse nursing is more than just a job. I've wanted to become an RN for as long as I can remember. I have a strong desire to help others, a deep interest in health and the human body, and a passion for having a positive impact on others lives in during their most vulnerable moments. After I earn my bachelors degree, I will attend a nurse practitioner program, and then specialize in cardiology. Any additional money will greatly benefit me in the future. Thank you for your consideration!

To whom it may concern,

I am truly honored to write this letter of recommendation for Kaylie Mower. Coaching Kaylie has been such a rewarding experience for me. Over the time I have worked with her, I have watched her grow not only into a strong athlete, but into a confident, dependable, and caring young woman. She has made a lasting impact on Monticello High School's cheer program and on me personally.

From the start, Kaylie brought a quiet determination to the team. She may not have always been the loudest in the room, but she led in the ways that matter most, through her actions. She showed up ready to work, stayed after when she needed extra help, and never complained when things were hard. When skills didn't come easily, she didn't give up. She kept trying until she got it right. That kind of perseverance is something you can't teach, it comes from within.

What has always stood out to me most about Kaylie is how she treats others. She pays attention to her teammates. If someone is struggling, she notices. If someone needs encouragement, she gives it. She has stepped in to help without being asked and has supported younger athletes in ways that truly reflect her character. During high-pressure performances and competitions, I could count on her to stay steady and focused, helping those around her.

Balancing cheer, school, and other responsibilities is not easy, but Kaylie handled it with grace and maturity. She managed her time well and understood that being part of a team means showing up fully committed. I never had to question whether she would follow through, she always did.

Kaylie is the kind of athlete and person every coach hopes for. She is kind, respectful, hardworking, and genuine. I am incredibly proud of the growth I have seen in her and excited to see what her future holds.

I fully and confidently support Kaylie in her pursuit of this scholarship with Empire Electric. She is more than deserving, and I know she will continue to make a positive difference wherever she goes.

Please feel free to reach out to me if you need anything further.

Sincerely,
Kerri Murdock

To Whom it May Concern:

RE:Kaylie Mower

Kaylie is currently a high school senior who is enrolled in my Nursing Assistant college course at USU Blanding. She is an excellent student. She devotes herself to being prepared and completing all assignments on time. She works hard in class to excel. I believe she is very deserving of a scholarship.

Sincerely,

Chris Haskell, LPN-SFA
Nursing Assistant Instructor
